Introduction:

Welcome to my IT project this is my first-time making web page. In this project I made a Personal Web Page Using HTML, CSS and JavaScript. In my web page it includes Home, About, Services, Portfolio and Contact section.

Objective:

The main objective of this web page is about my personal experience. I have explained all the information and my skills and experiences. The user can know about my services and my latest project through this web page.

Conclusion:

In overall, this project was very exciting and fun to work. I have learned many things during this project. I learned this by using YouTube and different websites. I got to learn more about web page designing during this project. My code with screenshot is given below.
